

I would like to submit a complaint about a recent episode of Oprah on my local NBC (KWG) station. There was a graphic exchange of discussing a topic of oral and anal sex called "tossing my salad". Normally you would not expect this type of dialogue in a 4pm show that normally doesn't discuss graphic sex acts. In light of the other fines the FCC has been giving lately, this act is definatly in line with your current stance against indency. Thank you.
